Kenney and Harris Join AgIS Capital Team

March 28, 2018: Announcement by Jeffrey A. Conrad, President and Founder

I am very pleased to announce that Stephen Kenney and Danielle Harris will be joining the AgIS Capital team.

Stephen Kenney, formerly Vice President of Business Development with Hancock Natural Resource Group (HNRG), joins the AgIS team as a Vice President of Business Development and will lead up AgIS Capital's growing business development efforts. Stephen brings over 15 years of experience to AgIS and will be based in Iowa. He holds a BS in Finance from Iowa State University and a MS in Finance from Brandeis University. We are excited to have Stephen join us in this newly formed role to continue to support the growth of AgIS Capital.

Danielle Harris, formerly Transaction Manager with HNRG, joins the AgIS team as an Operations Analyst for AgIS Property Management (APM), AgIS Capital's property management group. Danielle brings several years of real estate and farmland operating experience to the AgIS team and will be based in the Boston office. She holds a BBA in Accounting and Finance from Northeastern University and is pursuing her MBA from Boston College. We are pleased to have Danielle supporting our growing property portfolio.
