Dahl Joins AgIS Capital as Senior Investment Strategist

Announcement by Jeffrey A. Conrad, President and Founder

I am very pleased to announce that Cody Dahl has joined AgIS Capital in the newly created role of Senior Investment Strategist. Having worked closely with him in prior years, I am confident he will make a very strong and meaningful contribution to our efforts on behalf of clients.

Cody comes to us from the Hancock Agricultural Investment Group (HAIG) where he led that firm's economic research function. In his new role with AgIS, he will continue to provide our entire team with economic and market research support. However, he also will play a key role in our acquisitions effort – helping us develop new investment strategies, identify attractive opportunities and analyze prospective acquisitions by actively participating in our due diligence process.

Cody holds a BS in Agribusiness, Farm and Financial Management from the University of Illinois. He earned a MS and a Ph.D. from the University of Florida in Food and Resource Economics. Cody was born and raised in Central Illinois and grew up on his family's farm.
