Sean Edler and Kelsey Hines Join AgIS Capital Team

March 4, 2019: Announcement by Jeffrey A. Conrad, President and Founder

I am very pleased to announce that Sean Edler and Kelsey Hines, CPA, have recently joined the AgIS Capital team.

Edler, formerly Vice President of Farming Operations for Pero Family Farms, joins AgIS as Senior Farm Manager of our property management subsidiary, AgIS Property Management. In this role he will be responsible for properties located in the Washington and northern California. Sean brings more than 20 years of farm management expertise overseeing both permanent and row cropland. He holds a BS in General Agriculture from Oregon State University. We are excited to have Sean join us in this newly created role as AgIS Capital continues to grow.

Kelsey Hines, CPA, formerly an Assurance Manager with PricewaterhouseCoopers, joins AgIS as Accounting Manager. In this role she will be responsible for property-level accounting and client financial reporting. Kelsey brings several years of accounting and audit experience to AgIS. She holds a BS in Business Administration and MPAC from Bryant University. We are pleased to have Kelsey also supporting our business expansion efforts.
